

Card No. 11203.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

(Interpretation's the thing).

Little tools have lesser tools
Within their sockets riding
And these again have lesser still
And lesser still—providing.

And the great tools themselves,
Have greater tools around 'em
While these again have greater still
And greater still—confound 'em!

And every tool, pin, wheel or gear,
Each bushing, spring and lever
Are tools as well as any spear—
Machines, like any cleaver.

(Apology)

T-bone Slim.
