

Only 24 new miles of railroad was laid in 1933 — 1.876 miles of old road was scrapped. —

We'll never get to first base that way!
... ..

It is said the first lady is trekking perilously
close to the footsteps of Grape-Juice Bryan. —
They are her feet, and if I kind of look after my own stinkers, I will be doing her, Bill Rogers and the country a favor. Nevertheless, as the lugubrious Daily News truthfully groans,
"Beer is not a formal drink." (Neither is it a formidable one.) —

As to wine, I think it best when on the vine
— assorted.

Therefore, I make a motion the man with the shotgun be abolished from the grape-patch
north of Stockton, Cal. — he's always on the wrong end of the field. ... ..

Summons: Years ago a cop used to drag us mile and half to the lockup.

Now a Judge sends us a perfumed note, "come up and see me sometime." —
