Six-hundred thousand unemployed were rehired as between July and October last past.

This miracle was accomplished by cutting the average hours from 42 a week in July to 35 in October.

Forty-two hours a week would put 'em back in the soup line.

According to these presents 6,000,000 workers gave seven hours of their time each week to the unemployed.

Buying-power was not increased — only spread as between more buyers.

A matter of 2,300,000 workers of this class remain unemployed so I guess it's up to the employed to take off another shirt, if they've got one.

It is a foregone conclusion the intelligent minority will never elect themselves to do the heavy lifting.

No matter how class-conscious a man may be he can become class-noxious — under this system.

S.S. President Roosevelt brought in $5,064,000 of the well known yellow peril.

Silver is now 64 to 1 and good old W.J.B. is squirming in his grave.
