

112

Key Pittman and Borah have no grave to squirm in.

Did you ever come to notice anything peculiar about Franklin Delano?

I know you have. He has a thing that is searse as feathers on a crocodile, he has action... Oh ho! Now you want to forgive him all his sins?

World loves an actor.

. . .

The tripping of political grafter extends of such a great period of time that the said stumble bum acquires a new sheen and by the time he takes the header he is ready to be reelected.

The situation in France is wholly artificial. Her resources is not tapped, but confined.

Bayonne Stavisky bank scandal loses were of the importance of chicken feed.

The law holds. Tapping a hot boiler warms a cold one but in this case the tapping was not accomplished — only "prospective steam" was dissipated.

. . .