

Sourpus?

VI

Frustrations are a great source of liver complaint; and then the evaluation of the human race begins; much of it if not all of it uncomplimentary.

There are several remedies for this form of biliousness: a song, a dance, an action... forget the spilled milk

The sourness of the milk of human kindness should not be cultivated; it brings ~~and~~ an ultimate disintegration and crumbling of the human crust, a decomposition of the devotee of liver complaint.

IWW is not a picker and chooser of members. We care not where a man worships be it in a Cathedral, Synagogue, Church, Beer Saloon, Dance Hall, or any of the other many ideosynocracies; just so he is a worker, man or woman.

The IWW expects each of these workers to organize all those in the sphere or circle of their influence.

We do not expect the Rabbi to organize the Beer Saloon nor do we expect the Drunk to organize the Priest.

The principle is — you've got to be one of them; else you fail; you got to be pure and undefiled and not subject to the withered hand of suspicion.

Where is your wit, fellow workers.

What a saving grace is the sense of humor!

The Drunk will organize all Drunks from Here to Halifax and the purist's breath won't smell so bad.

The Servant of the Lord shall declare himself in the Synagogue and organize the other worshippers therein.

The Catholics shall organize all those in the Catholic Cathedrals; Protestants theirs and Church, of whatever Denomination, shall be organized by Churchmen — not by Gamblers and Pool Sharks or Career-Organizers.

The point is: each sphere or influence has within itself its best Organizers and Outsiders are Outside raising a big stink but only yapping at telephone-poles and paving-stones.

You've got to BELONG — or no dice

Criticism can be changed to eloquence and Sour-milk makes nice pancakes

The Unemployed shall organize the Unemployed — they are familiar with <sup>their</sup> troubles (a well-fed man might ball it up the detail and lead them to a bowl of watery onion soup.
