The relief-eaters could stand the saltpeter if they had something else to go with it — chopped veal and mutton, for instance.

Saltpeter is particularly violent with tomato sauce, peaches and vinegary pickles.

"Roosevelt '3 Horse Team' Died With the Buggy Days." sayeth Federal farm experts.

Better go look again. Three horse teams are common on threshing machine water tanks — all is not yet oil. Note: I once drove a one horse team in Michigan. The other nag couldn't stand up after walking to the job, so me and Rex did all the work — Dan browsed in brushpile. All three of us worked "day work" and put in full time.

Yes, I think the Sup. Court laid down on Franklin and they should be pastured.

Dr Nicholas Murray Butler who turns out some bum doctors in Columbia Univ, is tickled pink over the defeat of the Child Labor Law in New York. Nick is still well within his first hundred years and is now in Bermuda inhaling the breath of the famous onion-sets. (was) — come to think of it there must have been something phoney about that law or they would have let us look at it, Mebbe they wanted to cripple it before they killed it? Anyhow it doesn't look as if they had many marbles.
