

isolated citizen, democrat and taxpayer.

Understand me rightly. The city does not pay them a full-grown workers pay and does not expect from them actual work - only a few dirty derby tules, in the original New Yorkese twang - but my argument is, on the other hand, that movements against the citizen is of great benefit to the city and rates a regular He-man's pay.