

New York City is up against it where and how to spend her credit. Port Authority bought a white elephant in the second tube of Mid-Town Tunnel — it is sealed for posterity to save upkeep. War Dept. saved Moses' sanity in thumbing down the Red Hook Bridge. (Bridges are so hard to take in out of the weather) — and even the Hamilton Ave Ferry is running only as a matter of courtesy. Let Park Bay (Gravesend) swim for it and send Department of Sanitation out there.

Frau Gertrud Scholtz-Klink, "perfect German woman, mother of four children, is blonde, businesslike and buxom — her credo for women: "Our weapon is the soup/kettle; let no one underate its efficiency." — I wonder if we couldn't get Frau Gertrud to come to this country (USA); this is the soupiest country in the world — all the way from barley to beet soup, richly redolent with skeletons of dead animals (other than humans). We want Gerty to come here and put the fear Christ in the hearts of our embattled (and bottled) parloricians

When Borden and Sheffield VOLUNTARILY jacked-up the price of milk $\frac{1}{2}$ cent a quart all was hunkky-dory and nothing was said
