

Plattsburg (Up-Stairs) New York:

Plattsburg Training Camp is not a free summer vacation for broken-down businessmen, they pay the Army $43.50 a month for training. Its worth it during these heat waves in the city streets. (Note: im still packing my fishlines, Dave.)

By the way: why doesn't the British language give fish line a name? I hate to make a speech every time I want to mention fish snares.
